African American Orators have played a vital role in the struggles for liberation and social reform throughout U.S. history.

Scores of black orators sounded the charge against Jim Crow and stung the moral conscience of America.

This dramatic oratorical highlights speeches by African American orators over the past century.

For more information please call 510-723-3140 ext. 44217